WHAT'S NEW

Holiday Showcase/Family Skate—Thursday, Dec 21st

All skaters will participate in a Holiday Showcase to highlight their progress through the first half of the season. The show starts at 5:00 pm and is open to the public so bring the whole family for an evening of Holiday cheer! Admission is a monetary donation at the door. Please bring some canned goods to help support the local Salvation Army Food Drive. Following the show is a family skate. Hope to see you there!

- All skaters need to be at the arena and in their assigned dressing room by 4:30 pm.
- All female skaters will need beige tights and male skaters will need black pants.
- Costumes are provided the night of the show at the arena and should be left in the dressing room following the show. Skaters should not eat when in costume.
- Junior and Senior skaters will need a dress or skirt and beige tights. Tights and dresses can be purchased in the lobby. Dresses can also be rented from the club for a minimal fee.
- Junior and Senior skaters are invited to skate on both Tuesdays and Thursdays starting in December to allow extra time to practice for the show.

- Help at the door accepting donations/selling 50/50

- 50/50 draw. Tickets are $2 each and can be purchased at the lobby table Tuesdays/Thursdays. Draw will take place on December 21, 2023
- Dresses ($25), skirts ($10), and tights ($7), are for sale in the lobby at great deals. Proceeds of the sale go back into our club.
- Car decals ($5) and WSC key chains ($5 each or $7 if personalized with skater's name) are available for purchase in the lobby.

We appreciate your support with our fundraising efforts!

REMINDERS

- Remember to sharpen skates. Sharp skates allow the best opportunity for skill improvement.

"CHAUGHTCHA"

"Caughtcha" is a new addition to our newsletter and our WSC bulletin board thanks to a parent who "caught" one of our skaters in an act of kindness. We love to hear of our members showing kindness to others. Please let us know if you "catch" any of our skaters doing a good deed so we can give them recognition.

Becca M. was "caught" helping a mom tie the skates of her Canskaters. Great job Becca!
